

Walk 1 hour from Svinkløv Bathhotel to Svinklovene and return

Bike or drive to Svinkløv Bathhotel

Walk the first 500 m under the hill

At first pole for the Nordsøstien (West coast path) go up the hill (Lien is the name of the hill along the coast) to the top at Svinkløv Camping enjoy the view there is also a little old German bunker at your left when you are at the top

Follow the edge to your right when you come up the hill (go West) after around 2 km you will come to a stone road that you can follow right (West) to the point Svinklovene

Towards the west you see the Bulbjerg in clear weather – The rest of the stone Skarreklit cannot be seen

At the edge of the hill towards the sea you can see east towards Svinkløv and Slettestrand in clear weather you can see further towards Tranum, Ejstrup Strand, Blokhus, Løkken and Rudbjer Knude light house

The cliff is now fenced with a lot of Island horses – You just walk in

At the edge you can see the with parts of the lime cliff that has given the place the name Svinklovene

The pig toes

Follow the edge until you see the house and the “big” canon.

When you walk home you can choose the water sea side or you can walk under the cliff inside the dunes

There is a few of the rare orchids growing wild here. Now you see the svinkloven (Pig Claw) very clearly

If you go on the sea side do not be afraid you cannot miss to see the Svinkløv Bathhotel
