

Walk 1 hour from Svinkløv Bathhotel to Svinklovene and return

Bike or drive to the new buildt Svinkløv Bathhotel

Walk up the road

Pass first pole and take the next little path up hill (Lien is the name of the hill along the coast) and walk to the top

Enjoy the view - there is also a little old German bunker at your left when you are at the top Follow the edge to your right and pass Svinkløv Camping follow the edge and always go Vest.

After around 2 km you will come to a stone road that you can follow to the right again go Vest and you come to the point Svinklovene

Towards the Vest you see the Bulbjerg in clear weather – The rest of the stone Skarreklit cannot be seen. At the edge of the hill towards the sea you can see East towards Svinkløv and Slettestrand in clear weather you can see further towards Tranum, Ejstrup Strand, Blokhus, Løkken and Rudbjer Knude light house.

The cliff is now fenced with a lot of Island horses – You just walk in. At the edge you can see the with parts of the lime cliff that has given the place the name Svinklovene

The pig toes

Follow the sign

Follow the edge until you see the house and the “big” canon.

When you walk home you can choose the water sea side or you can walk under the cliff inside the dunes

There is a few of the rare orchids growing wild here. Now you see the svinkloven (Pig Claw) very clearly

There is a path under the hill and you can also walk on the seaside do not be afraid you cannot miss to see what is left of the former Svinkløv Bathhotel
