

At rainy days you might want to go to a longer car ride

You can always go to Skagen the top of Denmark. Visit painter museum. The house of Michael and Anna Anker and P.S. Krøyer

The North sea and Kattegat flow from each side at the top – Grenen

Big boats sail close to the shore

In the city of Skagen you can have a nice lunch at one of the many fish restaurants at the harbor side

Råbjerg mile is an impressive amount of moving parallel dyne in many years it will reach the east side of Denmark and go into the Kattegat a very strange thought

<https://eagleworld.dk/>

At the eagle world you can at 10 and 15 see impressive eagles

Many shops with local handcraft

Antik <http://www.lykkegaard-tversted.dk/>

Gallery - <https://galleritronsmark.dk/>

Tversted Beach

Lønstrup just south of Hirtshals is always nice visit

The town is full of restaurants and handcraft designs stores

At Maarup church you can have an impressive view of the cliff to the ocean

Maarup Church (area)

The remains of what was Maarup Church

View towards Rubjerg knude light house ocean.

Nr. Lyngby now and then a holiday house is taken by the

Visit the very nice Børglum Monastery just North of Løkken - <https://www.boerglumkloster.dk/en>

Monastery nice guided tour and garden

Nice Church

New made copy of the Bayeux tapestry

At Løkken you can drive to the seaside and drive along the water front

You can go as far as Blokhus - But even longer although I have not tried that in many years